INFORMED CONSENT

(Based on the Manual of Technical Standards for Guidance Counselors)

I am aware that information provided in this form and other information disclosed during counseling sessions shall be kept confidential. However, I am also aware that the counselor can divulge the information disclosed during counseling sessions when:

1) my behavior poses danger to my own wellbeing and to that of others;
2) there are legal proceedings where a subpoena is given; and
3) an abuse happened or is happening, which needs to be reported to proper authority.

Hence, I voluntarily give my consent that the necessary information will be divulged to third party individual/s when the immediately preceding conditions are met. I am also authorizing the listed parent and guardian to access my record subject to my consent particularly during urgent situations.
